

PRESIDENT IS TO TAKE TRIP

Roosevelt May Personally Inspect The Mississippi River Relative To Improvement.

MUCH TOWARDS NEW WATERWAY

Is Invited By Governors Of Seventeen States To Visit Scene Of Activity Of The Rivers And Harbors Commission.

Washington, D. C., May 20.—Aboard the good ship Mississippi, President Roosevelt is to make a personal inspection of the condition of the Father of Waters. This practically has been decided upon, and Mr. Roosevelt will probably make the voyage some time early in October. He is going west in September to make the principal address at the unveiling of the McKinley monument at Canton, O., and will proceed from there to St. Louis to some other river point to begin his journey.

The governors of seventeen states joined in the invitation to the President to make the trip, and it was believed that his declination, given some time ago, was final. It was generally regarded that the trip of the Inland Waterways Commission, now under way, was all the attention that the river was to receive at the hands of the administration, so far as personal inspection is concerned, and that the commission really was taking the place of the President. The acceptance of the invitation, however, is provisional. There is a possibility that Mr. Roosevelt may find so much work piled up on his return from his vacation at Oyster Bay that he will be unable to spare the six days necessary to complete the voyage.

The trip, if it is taken, will be a most important one, from the standpoint of waterways development. It is understood the President will make an address on this problem before the deep waterways convention to be held in Memphis in October and to which the President already has given his word that he will attend.

The advocates of the ship canal from the lakes to the gulf are jubilant over this Mississippi river trip of the President and also over the fact that he is to speak at the Memphis meeting. They believe that the scheme to connect Chicago and New Orleans by water will meet with the President's approval, and they feel certain of forcing congress to appropriate money for the scheme if they can gain Mr. Roosevelt as their ally.

President Roosevelt's administration probably will be known in history more for its constructive work in the direction of waterways and the development of water transportation, than for any other single feature. Since his endorsement of the National Rivers and Harbors congress, which for five years has sought to have the administration set aside $50,000,000 annually for development work to the streams and harbors of the country, the President has shown his interest in the subject in many ways. His appointment of the Inland Waterways Commission was a most important one and his personal inspection of the Mississippi will lead to a greater activity in improving the inland rivers as arteries for commerce.

Once this great system of waterways, which has been allowed to lie latent in the United States is developed, it will be possible for vessels to go from Boston to New Orleans without ever putting to sea. The Cape Cod canal and the inland passage to New York, the Hudson river and the Erie canal to the lakes, thence to Chicago and down the Mississippi river, will furnish a route that will be safe for barges, and the traffic undoubtedly will develop a marvelous stretch of country. Already the contract for the work on the Cape Cod canal has been awarded, while the State of New York has issued bonds to the amount of $101,000,000 to perfect its canals.

UNVEIL MONUMENT TO WORTH BAGLEY

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Raleigh, N. C., May 20.—Following the grandest military pageant that has ever taken place on the streets of Raleigh, and in which several thousand troops and members of civic organizations, led by the famous Marine band of Washington, filed past the governor of the state and other high officials and many thousands of spectators, the handsome monument in memory of Ensign Worth Bagley was unveiled in Capitol park today. Ensign Bagley was a son of North Carolina. He lost his life aboard the torpedo boat Winslow at Cardenas and was the first American officer killed in the war with Spain.

The unveiling ceremonies were most impressive. The procession started promptly at noon and marched to Capitol park, where the monument stands a short distance from the Confederate soldiers. Obedience places of honor on the speaker's stand were Governor Glenn and other state officials; the brother and other relatives of Ensign Bagley and several of the officers of the navy who served with him on the Winslow. The exercises began with an invocation by the Rev. Dr. John S. Watkins of Spartanburg, who was Worth Bagley's pastor. The oration of the day was delivered by Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson of Alabama, who was a friend and fellow-officer of Ensign Bagley and also a native son of North Carolina. The monument is the work of F. H. Packer of New York and was paid for by public subscription of the citizens of Raleigh. The statue is of bronze, seven feet in height, and represents Ensign Bagley standing with right hand shaking his eyes and intently looking at the Spanish vessels and batteries his left hand being in his sword hilt. The statue stands on a handsome granite base suitably inscribed.

If the weather is fine we may predict a large attendance of spectators.

Main Street.—An effort is being made to induce the Common Council to authorize Main street to be Macadamized from Court to Reine street. This is one of the handsomest streets in the city and furnishes a very pleasant drive when in order, and we are glad to see a movement is on foot for having the work accomplished. The petition is being very generally signed by the tax payers of the street.

Before The Footlights.

One of the biggest attractions to be seen in this city the entire season will appear at the Myers theatre Saturday, May 25, matinee and evening, when Richard Carle's and H. L. Hearty's great western operatic comedy success, "The Tenderfoot," with Oscar L. Figman and Ruth White will be heard. The music of this opera is so characteristic of the southwest, with its dash and swing ally signed by the tax payers of the street.

The weather continues cold and rainy, giving croakers an excellent opportunity to prophesy dismal things concerning the coming crops; but to those not afflicted with the blues the prospects are not at all gloomy. The cold damp weather is causing wheat to spread beautifully, and it is really more propitious for that particular crop than if it were warm enough to force the plants into rapid growth at this season of the year. Some fields of corn are out of the ground while in others the seed is hiding its time.

Stereoscopic Views.—A large and splendid collection of stereoscopic views of Oak Hill Cemetery and the City of Janesville, for sale at J. F. Barks academy of design.

On Thursday, while assisting in the erection of a new tobacco shed on the Dodge & Stephenson farm north of the city John W. Gardner narrowly escaped fatal injuries. A rung of a falling ladder struck him fairly upon the top of the head, inflicting a scalp wound over three inches in length and knocking him senseless. Had one of the side pieces of the ladder struck him instant death would have resulted. He is resting easily and will soon be himself again.

Ice cream and cake were served.

The next regular meeting of the Spring Valley Anti-Horse Thief association will be held in Orfordville on June first at which time all members in good standing will receive a dividend of $5.

TOBACCO PACKED IN BRODHEAD THIS YEAR

Leaf to the Value of $100,000 Has Been Handled in Warehouses During Past Season.

Brodhead, Wis., May 18.—The extent of the tobacco industry in this immediate section is hardly realized, and to many it may be interesting to know that approximately $100,000 worth of tobacco was packed in the warehouses in this city during the past season. The packing represented about three-quarters of a million pounds of the weed whose use is that of pastime, that of luxury for men. To pack this crop it requires an average of about 100 hands, men and women, for about five months and $10,000 to pay the men and women, and yet our tobacco district, Edgerton, which is in the center of the district, packed about six times this amount.

Edgerton has ten firms doing business. Brodhead has two firms, namely Mooney & Terry and the American Cigar Co. This amount does not represent the full extent of the tobacco growing here for many crops were sold to other buyers on account of the inability of the local companies to handle more. From the figures quoted one can get an idea of what the tobacco industry means to the city and the surrounding country. Thousands of dollars have gone into farmers' pockets to enrich their already cozy farm. The large amount of wages paid out during the winter for the handling of the crop goes largely to home people and means a wonderful thing to the city. The greatest part of this money goes to support a family and because it falls into the hands of such people, very little of it is spent foolishly. The industry in this city means much and from the present outlook it will grow from year to year.

MEASURING INFINITY

The State Corporation commission of Virginia has issued an extraordinary opinion in defense of its action in prescribing a maximum passenger rate at 2 cents a mile for most of the railroads in Virginia. The commission is to be commended for the wide scope of its inquiry and the frankness of its discussion. Its conclusions, however, are open to severe criticism, and it is not surprising that the railroads intend to make a vigorous protest.

The commission goes into the matter of railroad valuation at some length. It says that it knows of no more reliable method of ascertaining railroad valuation than to give consideration to the following items:

1. The original cost of property so far as it is shown.
2. The amount of the capital and the bonded debt of the company.
3. The market value of stocks and bonds.
4. The cost of reproducing the property anew.
5. The cost of reproducing the property in its present condition so far as it is shown.
6. The properly assessed value of the property for purposes of taxation.
7. The personal knowledge of the property by the commission.

The commission says that the most unreliable and misleading of all these methods of ascertaining value is that of the market value of the stocks and bonds. There is no more unreliable or misleading statement made in the whole report of the corporation commission than this. If there is any better way of ascertaining value than by the market quotation then the mind of man "as failing to discover it." The market price is accepted as the guide of value of most other kinds of property, and why not the railroad property? The commission claims that the market value is constantly fluctuating, is readily and often manipulated and depends much more upon the earning capacity, than upon the value of the property employed. The market price does indeed fluctuate from day to day, and is at times unquestionably subject to manipulation and yet the average market price over a period long enough to remove the element of manipulation is unquestionably the nearest approach to ascertaining actual value than anything else that can be devised.

In a market as wide as that of the New York Stock Exchange the value there fixed amounts practically to an appraisal of property by $5,000,000 of people. Such an appraisal must be of higher value than any appraisal made by a board of railroad commissioners, however expert and painstaking they may be. It is a cold-blooded appraisal, it is uninfused by sentiment or by favoritism or by politics. It is an appraisal by people who pay for what they buy.

There is no better board of appraisal in the world than the New York Stock Exchange. When we reject its verdict and attempt to ascertain value upon a method of our own we are attempting practically to measure infinity in a vessel no bigger than a human skull.—Wall Street Journal.

So much is being said nowadays about the value of railroad property, and the most intelligent way to determine it, that the above suggestions are worthy of careful consideration on the part of tax commissions, and others in authority.

The value of any property is based on its producing capacity. Not on what it originally cost, but what it is worth today as a producer. This is true of the farm, the store, the business block, the factory, or any other enterprise.

If the capital is represented by stock, as is the case with all corporations, then the value of the stock determines the value of the plant. If it pays a 10 per cent dividend the property is worth more than if it paid only 5 per cent, and when it falls to pay a dividend, for any length of time, the property is worth what a majority interest in the stock will sell for on a forced market. Wall street registers every day, a more accurate value of railroad property than a state tax commission can determine in a year. The physical value of this class of property is so widely distributed, and so dependent upon the entire system, that no single state can estimate it intelligently.

Madison plans for a Home Coming in July and the committee of Madison citizens announce they have obtained a two-cent rate from New York and San Francisco for the occasion. Why not wake up and have a Fourth of July celebration here?

It would not be a bad thing if the aldermen themselves were to walk over some of the bad sidewalks and then make a report. South Main street, one of the busiest thoroughfares in the city, has more feet of bad walks than any other in the city.

Over in Russia it appears to be quite the thing to kill off a few police officers or Cossacks just to keep the hand in and then for the police and Cossacks to turn around and murder innocent bystanders because they can not get the true criminals.

The Chicago police department are going to thoroughly probe the red light district and intend to place officers in charge who are married men with families to protect the youths and maidens who seek the downward course.

MRS. W. J. BATES
HAS PASSED AWAY

Death Came Last Evening From Attack of Acute General Paralysis.

Mrs. Allie Wright Bates, wife of W. J. Bates, passed away at 7:35 last evening at her home 7 Racine street. She was taken sick a week ago, Friday, but was confined for only five days. Her illness was acute general paralysis and for several days she suffered much. Yesterday morning she fell into a comatose and as a last resort an operation was performed at noon. It proved futile and the end came peacefully without consciousness having been regained. The deceased was born in Green Bay, May 23, 1855, being the youngest of five daughters of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wright. She was married to Mr. Bates in 1884 and since then has been a resident of Janesville. Mrs. Bates was a member and prominent worker in the Methodist church, where she will be greatly missed. Her death is a shock to her many friends and she will be greatly mourned by a husband and two daughters—Miss Ethel Bates and Miss Marjorie Bates. She is also survived by parents, residing at De Pere and four sisters—Mrs. Flora Jeffery of Green Bay, Mrs. Jennie Van Dyke of Ishpeming, Mich., Mrs. P. H. Putnam of De Pere and Mrs. O. V. Cutting of Portage. Three sisters are here and the other three are expected to arrive this evening. Mrs. Bates' mother and O. V. Cutting and P. H. Putnam will come this evening. Mr. L. W. Brooks was called from Neenah Saturday. The funeral will be held from the home at ten o'clock Wednesday morning and interment will be in Oak Hill.

Marietta Spears.
Mrs. Marietta Spears was born in Williston, Canada, June 4, 1815, and died in La Prairie May 13, 1907, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Scott Smith. She was the daughter of Nathaniel and Mary Brown. In 1831 at the early age of sixteen she was united in marriage to Edward Spears. To them five children were born, two of whom died in early childhood, also a daughter, Emma, passed from earth in young womanhood. The daughter, Mrs. S. Smith, who cared for her so many years passed to the beautiful home only three months ago. She leaves but one child to mourn her, a son, Byron Spears of Springfield, Mo. She is survived by twelve grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren and many more distant relatives.

Mrs. Spears spent the early years of her married life in New York state. In 1847 with her husband and two children she moved to Janesville and thus was one of the very early pioneers of Rock county. As such she braved many hardships and privations, for the comforts of life were few and luxuries were unknown. Thus she lived on a farm west of Janesville until the death of her husband twenty-five years ago, since which time she has made her home with Mrs. Smith in La Prairie. Early in life Mrs. Spears confessed her love for the Saviour and at an early date united with the First M. E. of Janesville and was a member at the time of her death. She was not a woman who attempted great things but did the duty nearest to her. And thus in her simple way she has done the innumerable little things of life, and doing them for her Master she has had her reward. She was naturally slender and frail and at times her burdens seemed greater than she could bear, but her faith was strong and she was sustained by a loving, invisible hand that led her safely on. She has longed to go to the beautiful home and death came as a happy release, and she leaves the record of a simple, well-spent life.

Mrs. S. J. Waddell passed away at the home of her brother in Chicago at 5:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Upon becoming the bride of Mr. Waddell fifteen years ago she took up her residence in Janesville and lived here (ill) about a year and a half ago. Her health having failed Mr. Waddell took her to Texas, six months later to Mississippi and last December to Montgomery, Alabama. Her ultimate recovery was despaired and Mr. and Mrs. Waddell started for Janesville last week, but the demise came shortly after Chicago had been reached. Mr. Waddell brought the remains to Janesville at noon today and funeral services will be held from the Snyder flats and the Presbyterian church at half-past two o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Waddell leaves a husband, three brothers in Chicago, a brother and sister at Toronto, Canada, and a father and mother at Port Dover, Ontario.

Mrs. Huldia Carpenter.
All that is mortal of the late Mrs. Huldia Carpenter was tenderly laid at rest in Oak Hill cemetery yesterday afternoon. Funeral services were held from the European hotel at two o'clock, Rev. C. J. Koerner officiating. The pallbearers were Ben Lemmerhirt, William Morris, Albert Mahoney, Charles Wren, Ed Clark and Jerry Woods.Eat Regularly.
Time is the essence of all contracts; every meal is a new contract with one's stomach; therefore, be in time. In other words, eat regularly. There are many important dietetic rules—none more important than this. The man who eats one meal to-day and four to-morrow, or who dines at any convenient hour, all the way from five p. m. to midnight, is on the direct road to digestive purgatory.Joys of Authorship.
I have heard of a novelist confessing that his interest in the sorrows of his heroine was so poignant that he damaged his typewriting machine by floods of many tears. He was enjoying himself—Andrew Lang, in the Illustrated London News.Dull Times.
"Hello!" said the funny man to Finnegan the undertaker. "I suppose your business is dead with you?" "Faith, it's worse than that," replied Finnegan. "Sure, I haven't buried a livin' soul in near a month."Real Vocation in Life.
Every individual will be the happier the more clearly he understands that his vocation consists, not in exacting service from others, but in ministering to others, in giving his life for ransom of many. A man who does this will be worthy of his food and will not fail to have it.—Tolstoy.SCHMITZ ASKS FOR
NEW TRIAL JUDGE

San Francisco, May 20.—District Attorney Langdon was last night served by Mayor Schmitz's attorneys, Metson, Campbell & Drew and John J. Barrett and C. H. Fairall, with notices of a motion for substitution of trial judge on the ground that Judge Frank H. Dunne is disqualified by bias and prejudice. Accompanying and supporting this motion is a lengthy affidavit by Schmitz in which charges of an extremely sensational nature are made against Rudolph Spreckels, his associates in the bribery graft prosecution, and Judge Dunne himself.

Charges Against Spreckels.
Among Schmitz's allegations are the following:
That Mr. Spreckels and the associates who are with him, the financial guarantors of the bribery graft investigation and prosecution, long since exhausted the original fund of $100,000 pledged by Spreckels and have expended nearly $1,000,000 in municipal purification campaigns; that the expenditure of this vast sum of money is by way of an investment from which actual monetary returns are expected; that Spreckels and his prosecuting associates desire and purpose to overthrow the present municipal administration in order that they themselves may assume the reins of government and secure for themselves street railway and water franchises which will net them millions of dollars of the public money; that Judge Dunne is aware of this intent and purpose and is therewith in accord; that the conviction of Schmitz is desired as a means to these ends, and that it is the wish of Judge Dunne that a biased and prejudiced jury be selected to secure such conviction; that for that and various reasons the same as set forth recently by Abraham Ruef, in his application for a substitute for trial judge, it is impossible for Schmitz to have a fair and impartial trial at Judge Dunne's hands.Committee to Meet.
The committee of seven business men to whom Mayor Schmitz has given full power to cope with the peculiar situation brought about in municipal affairs by the developments in the graft investigation will meet Monday. An invitation has been extended to a number of labor leaders to be present with suggestions. The committee has issued a declaration of principles in which it says:

"We intend to bring about a clean condition of affairs in this community and make it safe for habitation by human beings and for the investment of capital. We shall do nothing in the nature of class legislation, and recognize that every element in the community has a right to representation in the government of the city."

INVESTIGATES POLICE FORCE.
Gov. Folk Promises a Shake-Up in Kansas City.
Kansas City, Mo., May 20.—Gov. Joseph W. Folk left for Jefferson City after a conference with the local police commissioners regarding graft charges that lasted until one o'clock Sunday morning. He had but a few hours' sleep and early Sunday continued conferring with persons from different walks of life who made him acquainted with various phases of police corruption. Among his callers were policemen and police detectives, who are said to have laid bare numerous irregularities, evidently in the hope of gaining immunity for themselves.

Gov. Folk's investigations have apparently convinced him that there is a very strong alliance existing between the Metropolitan Street Railway company and the police force. A high official of the police department is authority for the statement that within two years this alleged alliance has been encouraged by the heads of the department. Mayor Beardsley has repeatedly charged that policemen have been over zealous in serving the street car company when passengers have been injured in accidents. It was charged that instead of taking steps promptly to relieve the sufferings of the injured, policemen have frequently waited to notify the claim agents of the company and in other ways aided the company to fortify itself against damage suits.

Small Recompense.
A New York woman got a verdict of six cents against a dentist who had tried to kiss her and failed, which seems small recompense for a disappointment.MRS. W. J. BATES

Mrs. Marietta Spears was born in Williston, Canada, June 4, 1815, and died in La Prairie May 13, 1907, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Scott Smith. She was the daughter of Nathaniel and Mary Brown. In 1831 at the early age of sixteen she was united in marriage to Edward Spears. To them five children were born, two of whom died in early childhood, also a daughter, Emma, passed from earth in young womanhood. The daughter, Mrs. S. Smith, who cared for her so many years passed to the beautiful home only three months ago. She leaves but one child to mourn her, a son, Byron Spears of Springfield, Mo. She is survived by twelve grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren and many more distant relatives.

Mrs. Spears spent the early years of her married life in New York state. In 1847 with her husband and two children she moved to Janesville and thus was one of the very early pioneers of Rock county. As such she braved many hardships and privations, for the comforts of life were few and luxuries were unknown. Thus she lived on a farm west of Janesville until the death of her husband twenty-five years ago, since which time she has made her home with Mrs. Smith in La Prairie. Early in life Mrs. Spears confessed her love for the Saviour and at an early date united with the First M. E. of Janesville and was a member at the time of her death. She was not a woman who attempted great things but did the duty nearest to her. And thus in her simple way she has done the innumerable little things of life, and doing them for her Master she has had her reward. She was naturally slender and frail and at times her burdens seemed greater than she could bear, but her faith was strong and she was sustained by a loving, invisible hand that led her safely on. She has longed to go to the beautiful home and death came as a happy release, and she leaves the record of a simple, well-spent life.

Mrs. S. J. Waddell passed away at the home of her brother in Chicago at 5:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Upon becoming the bride of Mr. Waddell fifteen years ago she took up her residence in Janesville and lived here (ill) about a year and a half ago. Her health having failed Mr. Waddell took her to Texas, six months later to Mississippi and last December to Montgomery, Alabama. Her ultimate recovery was despaired and Mr. and Mrs. Waddell started for Janesville last week, but the demise came shortly after Chicago had been reached. Mr. Waddell brought the remains to Janesville at noon today and funeral services will be held from the Snyder flats and the Presbyterian church at half-past two o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Waddell leaves a husband, three brothers in Chicago, a brother and sister at Toronto, Canada, and a father and mother at Port Dover, Ontario.

Mrs. Huldia Carpenter.
All that is mortal of the late Mrs. Huldia Carpenter was tenderly laid at rest in Oak Hill cemetery yesterday afternoon. Funeral services were held from the European hotel at two o'clock, Rev. C. J. Koerner officiating. The pallbearers were Ben Lemmerhirt, William Morris, Albert Mahoney, Charles Wren, Ed Clark and Jerry Woods.Eat Regularly.
Time is the essence of all contracts; every meal is a new contract with one's stomach; therefore, be in time. In other words, eat regularly. There are many important dietetic rules—none more important than this. The man who eats one meal to-day and four to-morrow, or who dines at any convenient hour, all the way from five p. m. to midnight, is on the direct road to digestive purgatory.Joys of Authorship.

"Hello!" said the funny man to Finnegan the undertaker. "I suppose your business is dead with you?" "Faith, it's worse than that," replied Finnegan. "Sure, I haven't buried a livin' soul in near a month."Real Vocation in Life.
Every individual will be the happier the more clearly he understands that his vocation consists, not in exacting service from others, but in ministering to others, in giving his life for ransom of many. A man who does this will be worthy of his food and will not fail to have it.—Tolstoy.

Properties of Gold.

Pure gold is unaffected by the atmosphere either at ordinary temperatures or when the metal is heated. It is also proof against the action of common acids when used singly. Moreover, says the Jewelers' Circular Weekly, it confers its properties more or less upon copper and silver when these metals are alloyed with it. Thus, for example, 12 karat gold will withstand the action of nitric acid and the atmosphere at ordinary temperature, but some of the copper will be oxidized during annealing. Nine parts of gold may be alloyed with ten parts of platinum in an ordinary crucible and fire, but such an alloy will not be uniform; a large proportion of the platinum will free itself from the gold on solidification and a homogeneous alloy of the two metals cannot be obtained.

The Grave of Goldsmith.
That Oliver Goldsmith was buried in the churchyard of the Temple has been placed beyond doubt by the entry in the register. But the stone on the north side of the Temple church, around which the enthusiasts of the Goldsmith club gather, has been placed on a spot purely conjectural, for the exact position of the grave has never been discovered. The real site was remembered as late as 1830. In that year the sexton, a very aged man, who apparently was present at the burial, still venerated an elder tree, which, he said, marked the site of Goldsmith's grave. This elder tree seems to have stood a few feet south of the present stone, near the old vestry.—Westminster Gazette.Character Formation.

JANESVILLE TO KEEP DENISON

ANNOUNCEMENT AT CHURCH YESTERDAY MORNING.

CONGREGATION APPLAUDED

Pastor of Congregational Church Feels Local Field Is Large and Important.

At the regular morning service at the Congregational church yesterday Rev. R. C. Denison announced that he would remain in Janesville. The congregation's joy and approval resulted in loud applause. In his remarks Mr. Denison said that the Congregational church of Omaha opened negotiations with him in February. He at first dismissed the requests and propositions but the church committee was persistent. In justice to the Christian work, the Omaha church and to himself Mr. Denison finally made an investigation, preaching in Omaha last Sunday and looking over the field. He found the territory large and to decide between Omaha and Janesville was difficult. But he feels the field here is also important. There is much that can be accomplished in this city, especially among the younger people, toward such an end will his efforts be directed.

No greater expression of how Mr. Denison is appreciated here could have been shown than the demonstration yesterday morning. The applause was universal, men and women, young and old, clapping enthusiastically. But more than those who are members of the Congregational church or attend there are happy. Everyone acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Denison are delighted at his decision.

HAROLD MYERS WON TWO OF THE EVENTS

Wisconsin Track Team Captain and His Associates Easily Won from Gophers at Dual Meet.

Wisconsin swamped the Gophers in the dual track meet at Madison, Saturday afternoon and Captain Harold Myers of Janesville, handicapped by a strong west wind which seemed to preclude the possibility of good time, won handsily in two events and captured two points for his university. His performances in the 100-yard dash and half-mile run, when he covered the former in 10 seconds flat and the latter in 2:03 1-5, were the features of the meet. His work was only equaled in results by Natwick, who took two more hurdle events, rolling up ten more points for the Badgers, Mortenson, the Minnesota competitor of Myers in the half-mile event, is alleged to have made a palpable effort to interfere with the Badger captain as the latter was about to pass him. This unsportsmanlike action was hooted by the big crowd of onlookers. The Janesville athletes are practically training the team this season, the time of the regular instructor being occupied with other branches of athletics. The creditable showing of 75 points to Minnesota's 47, speaks eloquently of the effectiveness of his methods and work.

JANESVILLE LOST IN INITIAL GAME

CITY BASEBALL TEAM DEFEATED BY MADISON, 8 TO 5.

WHITE SOX MAN SPECTATOR

Other Local Nines Given Drubbings Yesterday—K. O. H. C. Now Hold Junior League Cup.

Janesville's newly organized baseball team went down to defeat before the Madison city nine in the game at the fair grounds yesterday. Up to the fourth inning the home team looked like a winner, but the locals then bunched their errors and the visitors assembled a few hits with disastrous results to the Bower City. The final score was 8 and 5.

The home team showed considerable strength at bat and with more silky work in the field will be able to negotiate some victories. Hutchison lambasted the sphere for a three-bagger and brought in two runs; Schmidt pounded out a two-base hit, making another score possible. The other two points were secured on Casey's single and an error on Madison's third baseman. In all Janesville made six hits and had but three strikeouts. The visitors had equal numbers in both columns. Schmidt and Wendt proved a good battery and Captain Ward played a star game on the first sawdust sock.

Despite the chill atmosphere and the dislodged winds attendance was good. Among the spectators was Sheldon A. Lejunc, reserve first baseman for the White Sox, the Chicago team in the American league.

To the tune of 10 and 5 the Janesville Athletics were beaten by the Beloit White Sox yesterday afternoon. The game was played at Vest's park and was seen by a well filled grandstand. Carroll and Schmidt did the box work for Janesville and Brummond caught. Next week the team will cross bats with the Afton Tigers.

Blackhawks Scolded
By carrying the Blackhawk team journeyed to Afton yesterday afternoon and were massacred. The Tigers fought to preserve the reputation of their name and when the smoke rolled from the battlefield they had scored twelve runs against the two of the tomahawk wielders.

Riverview All Stars Crushed
The Riverview All Stars had their hats crushed in and shoved down over their ears in a contest with the Ben Hur nine of Harmony on Sloan's pasture yesterday afternoon. The boys from the acres scored 17 while the city lads made but 12. During the progress of the game a pitched ball struck Catcher Oscar Hammerluis mask, broke through the wire and blackened an eye.

Browns Badly Beaten
At the fair grounds Saturday afternoon the Lewis Knitting company Browns were again defeated by the Beloit Y. M. C. A. team. The Janesville nine failed to get a look-in, losing by a score of 14 to 0. Kline and Mills twisted for the home aggregation and Foster occupying the box for the Line City nine, twirled unsolvable curves. A good-sized crowd watched the contest.

Holy Cross Won Cup
By defeating the Y. M. C. A. Junior baseball team Saturday afternoon the Knights of the Holy Cross of Trinity church won the Janesville junior league trophy cup. The game which was closely contested ended with a score of 7 to 5. This was the second in a series of three games but decided the cup race, the Knights having been victorious in the first set.

NEWS OF CITY IN BRIEF.

John Denning Very Ill: Yesterday morning Officer Brown found John Denning in the throes of some strange malady at a house on East Milwaukee street. A physician was summoned to dress his injuries and this morning he was taken to the county jail for five days. There was no evidence that drink was the direct cause of his condition in either instance.

EAST MILWAUKEE ST. PAVING IS OPPOSED

Certain Property-Holders Are Circulating Petition Which May Be Submitted to Council Tonight.

At the adjourned meeting of the city council this evening the street assessment and highway committees will report on their investigation of the St. Paul Railroad Co.'s objections to the assessment of 220 feet of its frontage on North Academy street for the proposed improvements there. The bids for the sprinkling contracts and the junk dealers' petition submitted at the last session may also come up for consideration. It is understood that owners of property on East Milwaukee street, between the Division and East street intersections have been circulating petitions against the proposed paving of that fraction of the thoroughfare with brick and that the names of farmers and teamsters, who claim that such improvement would increase the difficulty of the hauls in that locality, have been attached to the document. It is also reported that in anticipation of a movement to extend the brick pavement on South Main street, property-owners have taken steps to frame a remonstrance, claiming that the work should not be done until next year when the filling of the sewer trenches shall have had time to settle. Whether or not either or both of these protests will be presented tonight is not known for a certainty. There was a persistent rumor this morning that certain parties were circulating a signed remonstrance against Sunday baseball within the city limits. The identity of these parties and the probable destination of their remonstrance after it shall have been circulated and signed, could not be learned.

ANOTHER YOUNG BRAKEMAN SLAIN WHILE AT WORK

Frank M. Boylan of Janesville Injured at Barrington, Ill., Saturday Night and Died in Chicago Yesterday.

Frank M. Boylan, a Janesville young man braking for the Northwestern railway company, was run down by an engine in the yards at Barrington, Ill., Saturday night and so injured that death followed yesterday morning at quarter of ten. The young man went from Janesville Saturday morning as a member of Conductor Newman's crew. They had gone to Chicago and were doubling back to Harvard when the accident occurred. While the train was delayed at Barrington Boylan stepped onto a parallel track and was run down by a suburban engine, which was backing to the roundhouse and it is alleged was not carrying the required number of lights. He was thrown onto one rail, and the locomotive wheels passed over the right leg, fracturing and crushing the bone in two places. The left foot was also caught and one toe cut off. The injured man's cries attracted James Spohn of this city, engineer with Conductor Newman, and the took charge of the boy. Boylan was immediately carried to Chicago on a special train and transferred to St. Luke's hospital. He remained conscious for two hours but then fell into a coma from which he never awakened. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Boylan of 93 Western avenue were called to his bedside, but he failed to recognize them. They returned yesterday and it is expected their son's body will arrive this evening, having been held in Chicago for an inquest. Besides a father and mother, the deceased is survived by four sisters and a brother—Mrs. B. S. Gary, Mrs. Dee Quigly, Nellie Boylan, Margie Boylan, and Joe Boylan.

This is the second Janesville young man killed under the cars within a week. William D. Davy having been slain at Calumet on the St. Paul line last Wednesday.

In the Sporting World

FAMOUS YACHTSMAN.

Walter Burgess of Boston, Brother of Noted Designer.

OWNED THIRTY-FOUR RACERS.

Has Been Active in the Sport For Over Forty Years and Saw First Race For America's Cup in This Country in New York Harbor.

The youngest old yachtsman in America, Walter Burgess, secretary and treasurer of the Boston Yacht Club, is one of the best representatives of the cleanliness of sports in Massachusetts and from his many years of activity as a boat owner has a wealth of reminiscence of his favorite pastime, both in the American and international field. Mr. Burgess is now fifty-six years old, and he has been active in boat pulling since he was ten years old. In that time he has seen the entire development of modern yachting.

In his long career he has done a great deal of good in one way and another for the sport, inspiring others by his example to indulge in yachting and always standing for pure sportsmanship.

His service has also included considerable active work, as in 1872 the founding of the Beverly (Mass.) Yacht Club, now of Buzzards Bay, though it was founded on the north shore of Massachusetts bay.

Mr. Burgess saw the first race for the America's cup in this country in 1870 and recalls it as if it had been yesterday, with its great public outpouring, the inside course in New York harbor making it possible for all sorts of craft to see the start. He went with his brothers on the steamer Plymouth Rock. Jim Fiske owned the line and was on the steamer that day with a gay party. Mr. Burgess recalls that the English challenger Cambria, though a heavy schooner, was a "horse" going to windward, but that the Americans lost her running and reaching.

As the daily associate of his famous brother, Edward Burgess, when the latter was designing all three of his America's cup defenders, in 1885, 1886 and 1887, Walter Burgess came into very close touch with the spirit of international yachting.

Few persons who meet Walter Burgess without knowing the length of his active career as a yachtsman would guess at his long service in the sport or his age. He is the youngest-looking man of nearly fifty-six in Boston, his friends often aver, and he is still as devoted to yachting as he was forty years ago.

Mr. Burgess has owned more yachts, probably, than any other amateur in America. He cannot remember them all, though an evening of recollection and note making recently turned up the names of thirty-four, of which twenty were built for him and the others acquired by purchase. This does not include open boats, or working boats used as yachts, which if counted would swell the total to above forty.

Every one of these boats has been sailed by her owner, as Mr. Burgess never resigns the tiller or wheel to a paid hand. He believes in maintaining the purity of amateur sailing, as all of his family always have, and there is no family in America more closely connected with the sport than they.

From 1873 to 1876 Mr. Burgess had one of his most successful boats, the Tullip, built by Herreshoff. She was sixteen feet four inches water line and eighteen feet six inches over all, cat rigged.

In this boat Mr. Burgess won twenty-one first prizes, nine seconds and one third out of thirty-one starts, besides ten championship pennants. This boat was sold to Gordon Dexter and still exists, probably at Beverly.

Throughout his yachting career, although he has owned all types of boats, Mr. Burgess has favored the cat rig. He has owned some very fine cutabouts, retaining that rig several years after it went out of fashion in eastern racing. His largest cats were:

The Alpha, a line Osterville boat, built by Charles and Daniel Crosby in 1894. She was twenty-four feet water line, twenty-seven and a half feet over all and ten feet three inches beam. Mr. Burgess brought this boat around Cape Cod himself and cruised in her as far east as Bar Harbor, Me.

The Clara, built in 1895 by C. C. Hanley, at Monmouth beach. She was 24 by 28 by 11 feet 3 inches.

A second Clara, built by Hanley in 1890, of the same dimensions.

THE ROUNDUP COLUMN.

Mathewson's Wide Curves—Heart to Heart Talk on Pugilism.

Running horse racing and betting in Indiana have been shot full of holes by Governor Hanly.

Possibly this little interchange of airy repartee was responsible for it all: F. S. Carter, Sheriff Lake County, Ind.: I would like to have you inform me if the gambling ship City of Traverse is sailing in Indiana waters. Yours respectfully, J. FRANK HANLY, Governor.

J. Frank Hanly, Governor, Indianapolis: Send me a pair of hip boots, and I'll wade out and see. Yours respectfully, F. S. CARTER, Sheriff Lake County.

And then the governor put on his own hip boots and waded over Sheriff Carter's head.

The fate of the horse racing game in Indiana has given rise to the following marine ditty:

WHEN THE GOVERNOR SAID "NIX."

Come all ye jolly sailor men
An' listen to me chime
Till I tell ye the dangers
Upon the black sand dune;

Till I tell ye the dangers
An' the trouble that was made
When I shipped as cook'n handy man
In the Dearborn Park Stockade.

The day when first I joined her, sure,
She shoed those high an' dry;
We were told the coast defenders
Would never bat an eye.

The chalk was spread upon the board,
The prices they were laid,
An' it looked like lovely sailin'
For the Dearborn Park Stockade.

We sailed thr' days, when a storm arose,
An' the gov'n'r threw a fit,
He called from Indianapolis
He wouldn't stand for it.

He hollered to his horse marines,
"Get ready for a raid!"
An' everything looked blue aboard
The Dearborn Park Stockade.

Our captain stood upon the deck
An' cursed the rotten luck,
"Brave boys," he cried, "the stuff is off;
The office is to duck."

They're bearing down upon us
As sure as you're alive,
We might outrun the sheriff,
But the gov'v is two to five.

"For thr' long days we shoed the blow
(An' weathered out the storm,
Torpedo boats assailed us,
An' the lawyers ran to form.

Just grab the tools an' mosey
Before the pinch is made,
Now the wind is blowin' sadly
Through the Dearborn Park Stockade.

The baseball guess artists guessed right when they fulminated that Christy Mathewson, pitcher of the New York Nationals, would twirl this season in his old time brilliant form. Matty is sure going some.

One of the things that annoy the batsmen who face Matty is the wide ness of his curves, when he wants to make them wide. His "out," "in" and "drop" are not the efforts of a "pikor."

The Mathewson wide outshoot shies away from the plate like the yellow dog that flees from the small boy with a tin can and a string, or again, an inshoot will bend in toward the batsman as though there was a magnet affecting baseballs concealed in the player's stomach. As for the Mathewson "drop," it is the cruellest thing probably ever turned loose on major league stick slingers. When Matty retires batting averages in the National league will take a sudden jump upward.

Joe Gans says these yarns about his having been despoiled of all his cash by the crap route are canards. Then Joe must have spread the story so that people would not try to borrow money from him.

He now says he has $30,000 of his winnings safely hid away. What a rush the borrowers will make for Gans when they read of his admission!

"Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien has been exposed as one of the most shameless grafters in the boxing world today. And he had a lot of able men to beat in winning the graft championship. The others, however, were left at the post and likewise nailed to the track. They never had a look-in for first money.

Jockey Tod Sloan has been transformed from a derby topped and patent leather shod saddle knight into a modest little guy with real ambition in view. Sweet are the uses of adversity.

It doesn't do a thirsty man much good to drink in the beauties of the landscape.

The stubborn man is determined to stand his ground, even though he hasn't any.

THE RACE IS HONEST

Talk of American League Framing Is Boldly Inaccurate.

PARTISAN SPORT WRITERS.

Close Annual Race in Ban Johnson's League Is Due to Head Work of Team Managers and Fairly Even Rating of Clubs.

A Philadelphia newspaper has revived the charge that the close races in the American league are due to the efforts of President Johnson to equalize the playing strength of the contestants and that success has given the public impression that official juggling was practiced.

No one in touch with conditions in baseball would make such an assertion or endorse it by publishing it.

For several years partisan sporting editors openly avowed that the American race was a frame-up and that New York had been selected to win the pennant. The Highlanders have never finished better than second, and twice they were beaten out in the final series.

Johnson's administration of the American league has been marked by extraordinary executive ability, but if he had the co-operation of every club owner in his organization he could not prearrange the standing of its team at the close of the first day's games, and in order to have the finish come as framed up every umpire, manager and player would have to be a party to a fraud on the public.

The American league races are splendidly contested simply because most of the clubs have a capable manager and a complement of players fairly well up to the standard.

As President Combsky stated at the close of the 1906 campaign, the superiority of the champion White Sox over Medford's Plant Out of Date.

F. H. Farrar, superintendent of the city electric light plant, states that the plant is out of date and practically useless. According to his statement the plant is worth about $10,000, and it would require an expenditure of $15,000 to make it serviceable, while a new plant would cost about $20,000.

The majority of the council favor the employment of an electrical expert to make a thorough examination of the plant and report on the same.—Electrical World.

If you value your carpets and hangings more than the health of yourself and family by all means keep out the sun.

SEVENTEEN PER CENT A YEAR.

Depreciation of the Electric Plant in a Minnesota Town—Interesting Holdup.

The burning down of the municipal electric light plant of East Grand Forks, Minn., has probably settled the question of its abandonment, which was under discussion prior to the fire. A well informed correspondent writes that "the plant has furnished a somewhat indifferent service and did not earn enough to pay the fuel and labor accounts, to say nothing about interest on investment, depreciation, etc." In spite of its charging private customers $120 a year for 1,200 c. p. arcs on moonlight schedule.

As East Grand Forks is a border town and right across the line in North Dakota (a prohibition state) is the city of Grand Forks, about 90 per cent of the business houses in East Grand Forks are saloons. Many of these got their electric lights from a private company in Grand Forks, because the service was better and the price lower, until the council passed a resolution to the effect that no saloon would be licensed unless it patronized the municipal plant.

There is a curious discrepancy between the various reports as to the value of the plant. In January the city authorities reported that the plant had cost $32,000. Three months later they estimated the fire loss at $10,000, although we understand that the plant is entirely destroyed, and adjusted the loss at $5,000, the plant having been insured for $3,400. As it was installed in 1902, it looks as though the depreciation amounted to 84 per cent in five years, or 17 per cent a year. The plant will probably not be rebuilt.
